

QUESTIONNAIRE Literature and Europe

November 2008

- 1) Did your parents, grandparents or teachers impart you the love for books?
- 2) Did your parents, grandparents or teachers 'pass' you books (in the sense of 'passing heritage to next generations')?
If so, which books?
- 3) Do you discuss authors or books with your parents or grandparents?
- 4) Do you discuss authors or books with people of your age?
- 5) Which books written by Dutch authors, read by you, do you wish to be part of a European list of literature?
Why? Please a brief motivation for every book.
- 6) The senior students in Groningen partaking in the literature project have chosen the next five Dutch authors to be passed on, by means of one book from each author, to other Europeans and the younger generations: Ferdinand Bordewijk, Willem Frederik Hermans, Harry Mulisch, Hella Haasse, Tommy Wieringa.
What is your opinion about the choice?
Have you read books written by these authors? Which books?
- 7) Would you like to discuss your choice by mail with a Dutch language student at the University of Vienna?
